MEN'S BIBLE CLASS ENJOYS PROGRAM

A very enjoyable program was presented when members of the Torrance Men's Bible class met last Tuesday evening at the Christian church. The meeting opened with unity singing led by John Selby, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. L. G. Danford. Several selections by Al Custer, accordionist, a blind member of the class, and George Swank, who played the guitar, followed. Miss Gladys Morris, who gave several readings, was well received, and Miss Irma Stover, accompanied by Miss Magdalena Morris of Long Beach, interpreted a group of Scotch and Irish numbers in costume. Rev. O. G. Elder spoke briefly at this time, outlining a three-way membership contest with Long Beach, Los Angeles and Torrance participating. The speaker of the evening was Martin Louis Mertins, former Chautauqua lecturer, known as the "circuit rider" in radio circles, who drew for his audience a comparison of the time of Joseph of Egypt with present world conditions. Next Sunday evening the class will attend services at the M. E. church where they will present a special feature. A cordial invitation is extended to all men not affiliated with another class to join the group at the 9:30 o'clock service held at Torrance Theatre auditorium each Sunday morning.
